Dear Colleagues,

We have the great pleasure to invite you to attend our seminar:

Towards better outcomes: satisfying students' needs (and wants)

The talk at the seminar will explore ways of giving students clear models and clear directions to spoken fluency; what kind of language is worth teaching (and what isn't); how we can set clear, achievable goals – and how we can best hope to strike a balance between meeting students' needs and satisfying their wants.

The seminar will take place in Plovdiv, on Friday, April 27, 2012 at Park-hotel „Sankt Peterburg“ - „Nova“ Conference Hall (97 “Bulgaria” Blvd.)

The talk will be delivered by Hugh Dellar, a teacher and teacher trainer at the University of Westminster.
